

Nigel Whitfield
Partner and Head of Business Recovery & Insolvency

DD: 0113 280 2062

E: nigel.whitfield@luptonfawcett.law

Nigel joined the firm as a Partner in October 2012 following the merger of Lupton Fawcett and Lee & Priestley. He works in the Insolvency and Business Recovery department and specialises in contentious corporate and personal insolvency.

With nearly 30 years experience, Nigel is renowned for his technical knowledge and robust approach with instructions often resulting in unexpected and enhanced realisations for clients. He has extensive knowledge of all aspects of corporate and personal insolvency law and has particular experience in dealing with property related cases.

Nigel maintains an excellent reputation as a leading and highly respected and sought after specialist and has been recognised in Chambers UK for many years.

Nigel is a member of R3, The Insolvency Lawyers Association and the Law Society.

Personal Information

Nigel's personal interests include motor cycling, motor racing, the theatre, animals, and music.